A Message from Jodi Bainter: Happy Thanksgiving!

By: Jodi Bainter, Director, Travel Agency Sales

November 20, 2023

As we gather this week to celebrate the Thanksgiving holiday, I wanted to send along a quick message to share how thankful the entire Disney Destinations Travel Agency Sales team are for you, our passionate travel advisor colleagues!

Each of you creates boundless magic for your clients, and our shared guests. You continue to share the magic of a Disney vacation – whether at our theme parks, aboard our cruise ships, or through adventures and expeditions. Your passion for inspiring Disney joy is second to none, and for that, we are truly grateful!

On behalf of the entire Disney Destinations team, thank you for your continued dedication to creating magical experiences for your clients every day. We're so thankful you are a part of our extended Disney family and honored to work with such a talented group of travel professionals.

Thanks again for all you do. And for those who celebrate, have a wonderful Thanksgiving!
